U.S. DISTRICT JUDGE

Statement of the Case

On July 23, 2008, the government filed an Indictment against William Gomez-Garcia, and four other co-defendants. Count 1 alleges conspiracy to distribute more than 1 kilogram of heroin. Additionally, the government alleged a forfeiture allegation against all defendants.

Defendant, William Gomez-Garcia, entered a plea of not guilty and is in custody awaiting trial.

Defendant hereby makes the following motions:

DEFENDANT IS ENTITLED TO DISCOVERY

Rule 16 of the Federal Rules of Criminal Procedure hold that a criminal defendant is entitled to discovery and inspection. Pursuant to said Rule and all its sub-parts defendant requests the following:

1. All written and/or recorded statements made by defendant;
2. Any prior criminal record of defendant;
3. The right to allow defendant's attorney and/or investigator to inspect, copy and photograph any and all personal property seized by the government that was in defendant's possession at the time of his arrest.

Therefore, it is requested that defendant's attorney, Robert A. Garcia, and investigator Alan Stevens, be allowed to inspect and weigh all drugs that the government claims was seized in this case – along with any personal property belonging to defendant. The right to review any wiretaps taken in this case.

4. The summary of any expert witness testimony the government intends to use at trial under Federal Rules of Evidence, 702, 703, or 705;

5. The right to view or listen to the original and record any video tapes, photographs, tape recordings, which depict any act alleged in the Indictment. Including all video tapes, photographs, tape recordings, transmission that describe or depict any events as alleged or referred to in the Indictment that involve defendant and any co-conspirators.

6. The name and last known address of each prospective government witness including the confidential informant and or confidential source.

United States v Napue 8834 F.2d 1311 (7th Cir. 1987); United States v

Tucker 716 F.2d 583 (9th Cir. 1983), failure to interview government

witnesses by counsel is ineffective; United States v Cook 608 F.2d 1175, 1181 (9th Cir. 1979), defense has equal right to talk to witnesses.

9. The name and last known address of every witness to the crimes charged who will not be called by the government as a witness including the confidential informant. United States v. Cadet, 727 F.2d 1460 (9th Cir. 1984).

Defendant respectfully requests that the Court make this a continuous order.

II

DEFENDANT REQUESTS ALL MATERIAL PURSUANT TO BRADY

The prosecutor has a duty to disclose all evidence favorable to the defendant which is material either to guilt or punishment". Brady v Maryland, 373 U.S. 83, 87 (1963).

Among the items requested by Defendant are the following:

1. Any witnesses prior criminal record; United States v Strifler, 851 F.2d 1197 (9th Cir. 1988):

2. Existence of witness statements favorable to the defense: Jackson

1 v Wainwright, (5th Cir. 1968);

2       3. Promises or consideration made the U.S. government to any
3 witness including payments of money, forgiveness or reduction of any
4 debts, taxes, waiver of forfeitures including those made to any confidential
5 informant or confidential source or co-defendant, including any 5K1.1
6 departures and to what extent such 5K1.1 departures were made by the 7 government; and any immigration consideration, extension to remain in the 8 United States, deferral of deportation proceedings, given to any witness or 9 co-defendant or their family members or relatives, who provided any form
10 of assistance to the government, Giglio v United States, 504 U.S. 150
11 (1972);

12       4. That the government be ordered to inspect personnel files of all 13 witnesses for any exculpatory evidence and disclose said evidence to 14 defendant, including evidence that any witnesses have filed inaccurate
15 reports or 404(B) evidence; United States v Henthorn, 931 F.2d 29 (9th Cir.
16 1991);

17       5. Any evidence that any prospective government witness is biased or 18 prejudiced against the defendant, or has a motive to falsify or distort his
19 testimony, including any tort claims made by victim against the government
20 for defendant's alleged acts. Pennsylvania v Ritchie, 480 U.S. 39 (1987);
21 United States v Strifler, 851 F.2d 1197 (9th Cir. 1988).

22       6. Any evidence that any prospective government witness has
23 engaged in any criminal act whether or not resulting in a conviction. Rule
24 608 (b) of Federal Rules of Evidence.

25       7. Any evidence that any prospective witness is under investigation by

1 federal, state or local authorities for any criminal conduct. United States v
2 Chitty, 760 F.2d 425 (2d Cir.).

4 8. The right to have access to interview the government agents who
5 will testify at trial and who witnessed the events as outlined in discovery.

7 III

9 DEFENDANT IS ENTITLED TO
10 JENCKS ACT MATERIAL

11 Defendant requests all material pursuant to the Jencks Act, 18 U.S.C.
12 section

13 3500.
14

15 IV
16

17 DEFENDANT REQUEST ATTORNEY
18 VOIR DIRE

19 Rule 24(a) of the Federal Rules of Criminal Procedure states in part 20 "The court may permit the defendant or the defendant's attorney and the 21 attorney for the government to conduct the examination of prospective
22 jurors or may itself conduct the examination".

23 The Courts have recognized the importance of voir dire and its role in 24 providing a fair trial by an impartial panel.

25 "The function of voir dire is to ferret out prejudices in the venire that 26 threaten the defendant's Sixth Amendment right to a fair and impartial jury." Mu'Min v Virginia, 500 U.S. 415, 431 (1991); U.S. v Howell 213 F.3d
615, 627 (9th Cir. 2000).

27 Defendant respectfully requests that in order to obtain a fair trial 15
28

1 minutes of attorney voir dire be permitted.

5 REQUEST TO FILE ADDITIONAL MOTIONS

6 Defense counsel is still investigating the facts of this case and was 7 recently provided with certain discovery. Defense counsel may have the 8 need to file additional motions as evidence is uncovered and discovery is 9 provided. This request is consistent with due process principles as outlined
10 in the U.S. Constitution. Therefore, Defendant requests that leave be 11 granted to file additional motions; including motion for severance,
12 suppression of statements and evidence, and any other motion as discovery
13 and investigation dictate.

15 CONCLUSION

16 For all the reasons stated above defendant, William Garcia-Gomez,
17 respectfully requests that these motions for discovery, Brady material,
18 Jencks Act material, attorney voir dire, and leave to file additional motions
19 be granted.
